Participant Covenant

As a participant, I agree to follow the guidelines set by retreat leadership and advisors for this program. I will work towards the goals of this event and the building of our group into Christian Community by participating wholeheartedly and enthusiastically in all activities planned for my group. I will speak up when I have a problem, need or concern. I will respect the rights and property of others as well as respect and accept others for who they are and the beliefs they hold. I also agree not to bring or use any alcoholic beverages, tobacco products, drugs, fireworks, X-rated materials, or other substances harmful to me or others. I further agree not to engage in public nudity or cohabitation. I will encourage others to understand and abide by this covenant and strive to be a supportive member of the group. I understand that success in abiding in this covenant will result in a positive personal and group experience. I also understand that failure to abide by these guidelines may result in being sent home at my parents'/guardians' expense. I understand that this agreement ins not only a contract between myself, my parents/guardians, adults advisors, and program leaders, but also a covenant before the Lord.
